LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

The year 1947 was more successful at Haynes Library than 1946. More people came in to look over books; more books were taken out; and a larger variety of books were chosen. The book committee was able to arrange with the State Extension Library for the loan of books on a three months' basis. Two different collections of books were obtained for circulation under this arrangement. Four donors gave a total of forty volumes to the library and the book committee purchased nine, making a total of nearly fifty volumes added to the shelves during the year. This in part explains the added interest in taking out books. The library has been open mornings and during the noon hour, which also has helped. A number of patrons prefer to come in about 11 o'clock or at noon.

The bookmobile has supplied books for the children at the schoolhouse. About 100 books were left there during 1947.

The library has been closed for the winter, but will open the first Saturday in May, 1948.

Respectfully yours,

NELLIE K. WADHAMS,
Librarian.

ALEXANDRIA BUILDING FUND ACCOUNT

An effort has been made in the following material to present an accurate account of the money spent on the Village School. With the rush of summer work in this area and the general scarcity of labor we were fortunate in being able to do what has been done, and we feel, well done. Changes made have not been showy, and are actually underground for the most part, but the building committee seemed to feel that these were the steps to take. The desire for running water rather set the calendar of work requiring a cellar, reliable and sufficient heat, a well of known qualities. The sill was permanently fixed chiefly because the labor and willingness to do were available and was a basic need. The chimney has required attention and we hope will now supply sufficient draught to guarantee proper functioning of the automatic furnace.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Increasing Costs. The facts herewith presented in brief are well known by all of us in our general everyday living but are less well known specifically in the field of education. Just received from J. L. Hammett's, a big school supply house in Boston, are these figures: Average increase in price of paper stock from January to October, 1946 was 37.8 per cent, and from October, 1946 to October 1947 it was 20.6 per cent; figures on non-paper supplies for corresponding periods are 27.8 per cent and 10 per cent. Somewhat comparable increases would be found in books and workbooks.

(b) Teachers' salaries: By State Board ruling a teacher of 4 years of training with a degree and at least two years' of experience must be paid $2,000.00. This is the minimum salary and any school system paying only the minimum runs the risk of having no teachers at all. This year there are 7 graduating from the elementary division at Plymouth Teachers' College and 18 at Keene. We are fortunate in being able to keep our schools successfully open. The National Education Association reports a salary of around $2,500 today equal in purchasing power to $1,500.00 in 1941.

(c) It is not to be expected that the State of New Hampshire will continue to distribute $2,000,000.00 in aid without insisting on full value received in the form of better education for New Hampshire youth. We need to keep this in mind at all times. The state will be reluctant to dictate anything but minimum standards and will prefer to lead as it has in the matter of in-service training of teachers through the very successful workshops it has been holding this year. We must expect results both tangible and intangible for the money spent.

New Laws. In the long run the law passed the last legislature permitting co-operative school districts may well prove of more fundamental value than the State Aid bill. It needs to be given careful study for it opens up new horizons for New Hampshire youth in the form of a richer, more varied, more meaningful educational opportunity particularly on the junior and senior high school level. A superintendent of schools is a liason officer between many different groups and is always being "keel-hauled" sometimes in many directions at once! Certainly it is that much is being written and spoken on the defects of our educational system and of the things which we must do. Then too we realize our failings better than most others if we are conscientious in our work. Briefly stated some of these ideas can be realized only with more efficient and educationally richer organizations.

(b) School Districts are now permitted to set aside a capital reserve fund equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the assessed valuation. It would seem wise in some circumstances to take advantage of this provision while earning power remains high in anticipation of times when wages may be lower, and particularly desirable to do if any major building alterations or programs are being considered.

(c) New teachers must join the Teachers' Retirement System. To the school district this means an assessment payable July 1 of each year of at least 5 per cent of the teacher's salary. This, plus voluntary membership, will account for the increase in the budget item of Insurance and Other Fixed Charges.

(d) Beginning next year school must be in session at least 177 days on which pupils are in actual attendance. Total number of days of the school year must be 180 counting not more than 3 for institutes and not over 5 for a state approved workshop. This means keeping school until the required number is reached, and may mean as much as an additional week of school. Days lost must be made up before the close of school.

Actual state aid received from the regular allotment was $763.00 less than July estimate. This was due in part to an error in reporting the number of pupils and in part to an increase in equalized valuation.

It is a pleasure for me to compliment the people of Alexandria on the healthy interest in bettering school conditions and the feeling of working towards better things which I feel sure exists today. The accomplishments of the past year have far out reached anything I thought possible a year ago. Elsewhere you will find a separate accounting of the money spent on the village school, but the voting of this money last year is merely the visible part of what I am convinced is a sincere desire to better the schools of Alexandria as a whole. Results have been fine and with continued co-operation of all parties concerned much more can be done.

Respectfully submitted,

C. MAURICE GRAY,
Superintendent.
